²KJV King James Version. This version, when written, referred to all humankind as "mankind". When reading this version, unless the passage itself refers to a particular person, to which the text specifically refers, apply the message to all humankind, regardless of gender.

DEDICATION

I dedicate this book, first, to Yeshua Ha' Maschiach, (the Saviour) Who came to save, heal, and deliver³.

Then, to all those who walk in Master Yeshua's footsteps experiencing God's miraculous best for their lives and in turn, help others to receive the same.

³ "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because YeHoVaH hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of YeHoVaH, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of YeHoVaH, that he might be glorified."

Isaiah 61:1-3

In reaching for your miracle

Introduction

"Is any thing too hard for YeHoVaH? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son".

Genesis 18:14

Anyone, at any time, in any place, under any circumstances, whatsoever, can receive a miracle. All one need do is recognize the potential of their situation as a platform for a miracle. Then, reaching out to the only One Who can do all things, they become a candidate for a miracle.

This book entitled "Candidate for a Miracle" invites readers to come along as, together, we investigate the miracles of Yeshua. Each miracle under study displays God's power in some very difficult situations facing individuals in the time of Yeshua. Additionally, each miracle demonstrates one aspect of the supernatural, a topic today which calls many to investigate. Investigating the supernatural makes room, then, to invite the same to manifest in our life.

Now, to receive a supernatural answer to our need, to receive our miracle, two major components come to mind: God and us. God's role, the Bible reveals. It shows us His Heart, which reinforces His desire to respond to our need.

Additionally, the Bible teaches how to align with God so we can receive from His miracle power. Therefore, miracles, themselves, carry a strong link with the Bible and its teachings. Thus, it makes sense, to look at the miracles in the Bible, analyze them, learn from them, and then, apply it to our lives.

When thinking of miracles in the Bible, many ponder about Yeshua's many miracles as recorded in the gospels. These miracles, thirty-seven in number, fall into three basic categories:

- Power over nature
- Power over sickness, disease, infirmities and the like
- Power over death and darkness

Each miracle, as the Bible relates it, conveys facts about the situation, the people involved, as well as how the miracle occurred. These events, which more than summarize God's amazing abilities, convey God's compassion for humankind, as well as His desire to walk with His human creation through any trouble that touches their life. We can learn much, as we approach a study about the miracles of Yeshua.

To quickly assess the miracles performed by Yeshua, leaves a person without adequate information on how to apply things to their own life, and also does Yeshua a great injustice. On the other hand, a deeper, meditative approach produces an enjoyable palette of spiritual food for the believer, as well as give a pattern for one to follow.

Thus, an in-depth approach to the miracles of Yeshua seems most appropriate. To take this approach with all thirty-seven miracles, however, produces a tremendous size book, therefore, in this book, we present only eight miracles of Yeshua, each one exhibiting God's power over nature.

Before investigating those eight miracles, however, we lay down some needed groundwork. This means, we look at some groundwork the future recipient of the miracle needs before they receive it. Simply put, this means highlighting some specifics to help the miracle candidate align with any biblical requirements to receive their miracle, e.g., mindsets that produce a confidence in God as they look to Him for their miracle.

Then, as we examine the eight miracles within this textbook, we look at actual candidates, their miracles and how these took place. Keeping in mind our goal to obtain wisdom from the miracles of Yeshua, “Candidate for a Miracle” presents the facts of the miracle in the following manner:

- Background Setting:

This shows the history of the problem, along with the main characters involved in the miracle story.

- Operative Mindsets:

This aspect exposes the way individuals think, prior to the miracle, often uncovering attitudes required to change.

- Miracle Platform:

This identifies the situation, which may not always be easily recognized. For example, Yeshua’s invitation to feed the 5,000 stunned the disciples as their minds immediately assessed their food supply as inadequate.

- Revelation of God:

This aspect shows a candidate's necessity to draw near to God to know more about the One to Whom they believe and trust to help them.

- Miracle Specifics:

This reveals the particulars of the miracle, identifying the supernatural need.

- A Surface Meaning:

This exposes the immediate result of the miracle as well as the immediate significance of it.

- A Deeper Meaning:

This reveals deeper spiritual realities, so they become embedded in the recipient's mind, soul, and spirit, thus giving them a well from which to draw to receive their miracle.

- Mindsets Challenged:

This points out how miracle recipients learned to think differently, ways they might adjust their thinking to receive in their own situation. Additionally, it opens a door for onlookers to examine how their approach aligns with the needed mindsets to receive their miracle.

When finished examining these eight miracles in this manner, readers should discover how to present their life before God, positioning themselves in the best manner to receive their miracle in the needed areas of life!

In other words, "Candidate for a Miracle, presents an invitation to readers to study and learn how to position themselves to receive from God the miraculous intervention needed for their life.

So, dear reader, use this book and its references to biblical precepts, to learn and grow in your concept of miracles. Step into the days of Yeshua, and let the Holy Spirit guide you as, together, we examine eight of Yeshua's amazing miracles, each one verifying heaven's stamp of approval on the Saviour, the Living Son of God.

Discover or refresh yourself on some important and amazing attributes about God. Such information helps to appreciate God's care of His creation, boosts a person's faith, and helps to align mindsets to enable receiving from God.
